

Regional Communications Chairperson shall:

1. Improve electronic communication within the region
2. Maintain the Regional website.
3. Follow the national directives of the society and develop regional telecommunications programs based on those directives.
4. Promote the National Society of Black Engineers through the medium of the web
5. Support all sections and division of the society as it pertains to telecommunications.
6. Enforce guidelines for the development of chapter websites that are aligned with National Communications policies.
7. Encourage every regional member to increase their skills as it pertains to telecommunications.
8. Assist in planning and developing the future of telecommunications in the society with the goal of being the premier technical organization in the world.
9. Be dedicated to keeping abreast of telecommunications as it is developed all over the world.
10. Serve on the National Communications Committee.
11. Be responsible for the inventory and distribution of audio-visual equipment at Regional Conferences.